The Daily Courant.

Saturday, July 7. 1705.

From the Paris Gazette, dated July 4.

Madrid, June 19.

THE 10th of this Month, being the Eve of the Feſtival of the Holy Sacrament, the King and Queen return'd from Buen-Retiro, to aſſiſt at the Offices of that ſolemnity; and on the Day of the Feſtival the King accompanied the Proceſſion with exemplary Piety, while the Queen went to ſee it paſs from the Town-houſe. In the Evening, according to the Cuſtom of the Country, two ſpiritual Plays or Repreſentations were acted in the Palace, call'd Autos Sacramentales, and compos'd by the famous Poet Don Pedro Calderon. On the 25th the King, in the Foreſt of Luzon took a Review of 500 Recruits for the Army, whom he found in a very good Condition, well cloath'd and well arm'd. The Eſtates of Galicia being deſirous to give a Proof of their loyal Adherence to his Majeſty's Intereſt, and of their Zeal for the Defence of the Kingdom, have taken a Reſolution to levy 4000 Men, who are to be cloath'd, arm'd and maintain'd during the Campaign at the Charge of that Country. The Marquis de Villafranca chief Major Domo, Knight of the order of the Holy Ghoſt, and Councellor of State, departed this Life ſome Days ago.

The Enemy's main Army advanc'd the 4th of this Month, in the Evening within half a League of Badajox, as if they deſign'd to inveſt that Place: They encamp'd on the other ſide of the Guadiana, and the Spaniſh Horſe poſted themſelves over againſt them; the River being between both: Several Detachments advanc'd to engage them by Skirmiſhing, but could not ſucceed, in regard that the Enemy rung'd themſelves in order of Battle without making any Motion: 'Twas reported that they waited for their Artillery, and to be joyn'd by a Body of Troops commanded by the Marquis das Minas that was on the other ſide of the Tajo. There were in the Place 2000 Foot with 400 Grenadiers; 1500 French Foot enter'd it on the 10th Inſtant. But there was no Action for about 8 Days, except between ſmall Parties, in which our Men always had the Advantage. The ſams Day, (the 10th) in a Rencounter with a Party of Engliſh 10 of the Enemy were kill'd and ſome taken Priſoners; and there alſo came over 30 Deſerters of ſeveral Nations. In the mean while all poſſible Precautions were taken to ſupply the Place with every thing that was neceſſary for its Defence; and as the Marquis de Thoy, who obſerv'd the Marquis das Minas, might have joyn'd the Army unde the Marſhal de Theſſe, had the ſaid Marquis decamp'd from Pennamacor to march to the Camp near Badajox, the Marſhal would have been in a condition to oppoſe their Deſigns; but we receiv'd Advice by a Courier that arriv'd Yeſterday, that the Enemy were retir'd, and were encamp'd at Yelves. The Marquis das Minas ſent on the 7th a Convoy of Proviſions and Ammunition, with Cloaths for the Soldiers of the Garriſon that the Portugueſe had put into Salvaterra: The Guard of this Convoy conſiſted of 60 Horſe and as many Foot; but 60 Carabineers commanded by Don Antonio de Leyva, being plac'd in Ambuſcade, defeated them entirely, kill'd 30 Men, made 18 Priſoners, took 10 Horſes, and carry'd off the Convoy, having loſt but one Man in the Engagement. Another Party of 30 Horſe, with ſome Peaſants, pillag'd and burnt the Town of Quadrazales, from whence they drove away 200 Cows and 400 Sheep.

Advices from Cadix, ſay that four Galleys were arriv'd there, with Arms, Ammunition and Troops: There are 400 Horſe upon the Iſland of Leon, within a League of Cadiz; and Barracks were preparing to lodge them. A Convoy was lately ſent to Marvan guarded by 60 Horſe, who having march'd all Night, arriv'd at 6 a Clock in the Morning under the Cannon of the Place: but ſome time before, the Centinels giving notice that a Body of 600 Men appear'd to put a ſtop to their March; the Officer who commanded the Guard oppos'd them with ſo great Courage; that he kill'd 12 Men, with the Major of the Regiment of Olivenca, ſav'd the Convoy, excepting 3 Mules, and loſt but one Soldier, a Portugueſe who deſerted with a Servant. Since that we have had Advice that the Count de Charny, has put a great Convoy into Marvan, without any Loſs.

From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated July 10.

Madrid, June 20. The ſupreme Council havs made a Decree, by which they Authorize all the Royal Juriſdictions, to paſs Judgment in Matters of Treaſon without Appeal; and in regard that the late Conſpiracies have been carry'd on for the moſt part by Monks, the Pope's Nuncio has been oblig'd to refuſe them his Protection. A Conſpiracy has been lately diſcover'd at Cadiz, the Particulars of which are as follow: 12 Spaniards in 2 Shallops put out of the Harbour, as if they deſign'd to go a Fiſhing: They were obſerv'd by chance and meerly out of Curioſity, and it was perceiv'd, that they ſteer'd a quite different Courſe from that the Fiſhermen of Cadix us'd to take: whereupon two French Shallops row'd after them to obſerve them; they ſaw another Shallop come up and joyn the two Spaniſh ones; whereupon they made to them with all Expedition, and ſurpriz'd them as they were concerning their treaſonable Deſign: The two Spaniſh Shallops were attack'd, and ſoon taken, and that of the Enemy was chas'd and taken likewiſe. Our Men having perceiv'd that ſomething was thrown over-board out of that Shallop, and having taken particular Notice of the Place, they caus'd Men to dive there; one of whom brought up a Fuſil, in which were certain Letters of the Arch-Duke Charles, of the Amirante of Caſtile, and of the Prince of Heſſe Darmſtadt; which have diſcover'd the whole Plot that was carrying on againſt his moſt Catholick Majeſty. The King has diſcharg'd divers Perſons from their Offices and Employments, that were ſuſpected of favouring the Houſe of Auſtria, and has order'd certain French Men to return to France.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated July 9.

Madrid, June 19. Since the Diſcovery of the Conſpiracy in which the Marquis de Leganez was concern'd, the King has not appear'd once abroad without his Life-Guards, who did not uſe to attend him before. Some Grandees have endeavour'd to perſwade his Majeſty to diſpenſe with the conſtant Attendance of theſe Guards: But in vain. Several Perſons ſuſpected by the Government, have been taken up at Badajox and Cadix as well as here. The Marquis de Canales, Counceſſor of State, and formerly Secretary at War, is made General of the Artillery of this Kingdom and Governour of the Palace of Buen-retiro, in the Room of the Marquis de Le-

Leganez; which is much wonder'd at, becauſe he wants Capacity as well as Experience to diſcharge the Functions of that Office as they ought. A Council of Trade is form'd, and conſiſts of 10 Counceilors, of the Councils of Caſtile, of the Indies, and of the Treaſury; and of a like Number of Merchants. The French Intendant Orry laid the Plan of this Council. The Regiments of the Duke de Havre and of the Count d' Aguilar are order'd to come hither, to prevent any Inſurrection in Favour of the Arch Duke Charles. The Marſhal de Theſſe having caus'd the Officer, who commanded in Albuquerque when it ſurrendred to the Enemy, to be tried by a Court Martial; they condemn'd him to have his Sword broken and to be caſhier'd the Service with Ignominy; becauſe he did not retire with the Garriſon into the Caſtle when he could no longer defend the Town.

Plymouth, July 3. Yeſterday came in Her Majeſty's Ship the Worceſter from cruiſing. This Day came in the Centurion from Ireland, and the Reſolution, Triton and Fubbs-Yatcht from the Eaſtward. There is now off this Harbour Sir George Bing with the Squadron under his Convoy.

Yarmouth, July 4. This Morning 100 Sail of Light Colliers ſail'd from hence without Convoy; but the Wind proving contrary, great part of them are come back again, ſo that there is in the Roads about 150 Sail of Light Colliers, but no Men of War.

Harwich, July 5. Yeſterday a Fleet of light Colliers from the River, paſs'd by for the Northward.

Remarks upon Mr. Clark's Sermons Preach'd at St. Paul's againſt Hobbs, Spinoza, and other Atheiſts; wherein 'tis demonſtrated: 1. That Mr. C. by the Sceptical Hypotheſis he imploys, abſolutely cuts off all poſſible Means of knowing the Nature, or of proving the Exiſtance of the one only True God againſt Hobbs, Spinoza, or any other Atheiſt whatever. 2. That in Reference to God, or Spirits, he reduces Humane Underſtanding, to the moſt Incurable State of Scepticiſm. Theſe Two Particulars are handled and prov'd Geometrically. 3. The Reaſons are produced which convince the Author of this Paper, that thoſe Sermons do rather Eſtabliſh than Deſtroy, do rather Confirm than Confute Spinoza's Hypotheſis, 4to.
